

You load up. We move out.

Skip the hassle of renting, driving, loading and unloading a truck. Instead, call PODS to make your PPM move as smooth as possible. Our process is simple: We deliver a container. You fill it up, at your pace and on your schedule. When you're ready, give us a call. We'll come get your container and drive it across town, across the country, or even to one of our secure Storage Centers.

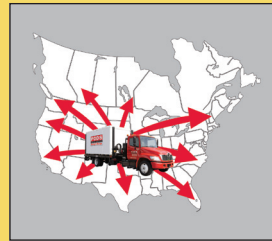

How PODS works:

We deliver.

You pack.

We move.

We store.

In four easy steps, you could save money on your upcoming PPM move:

1. Call PODS and mention promo code: NIKA to receive a free discounted quote.
2. Submit an application with your Transportation Office and receive a cash advance.
3. Call PODS to reserve your containers—arrangements will be made for you to receive empty and full weight tickets.
4. Contact the Transportation Office to certify the remaining reimbursement for payment by the Finance Office.
